New Assistant Director of the Chamber of Commerce

The Wytheville-Wythe-Bland Chamber of Commerce would like to welcome the new Assistant Director, Emily Sledd. As a 2011 graduate from King University with a Bachelors degree in Communications, Emily possesses skills in journalism, event planning, quality assurance, and database management. She is excited about her new position with the Wytheville-Wythe-Bland Chamber.

"I am thrilled to begin working with Jennifer, the Chamber Board, and everyone in Wythe and Bland Counties. I believe I can use my skills to help with the mission of the Chamber of Commerce in promoting a favorable business climate for its members and the community." says Sledd.

**Chamber of Commerce Membership Directory/Business & Relocation Guide**

The Chamber of Commerce is excited about our new Membership Directory/Business & Relocation Guide we are producing. The guide will have more content and opportunities to network with other members. The enhanced publication will be a "WOW" that will highlight the membership as well as show why our area is an amazing place to live, work and play. The Membership Directory/Business & Relocation Guide will feature articles and photos that illustrate why the Town of Rural Retreat and Wytheville and all of Bland and Wythe Counties are attractive to visitors and business.
